PRAYERS FOR LENT

and beyond

LENT BEGINS FEB. 17

Praying the Stations of the Cross is a traditional Christian practice, especially during the six weeks of Lent. We accompany Jesus along his tortuous path to Calvary and come to more fully understand the depth of his love for us.

As we enter into another season of Lent and Easter still under the grips of the COVID-19 pandemic, the Stations of the Cross can be an ideal form of prayer said alone in church or at home. (Go to www.usccb.org/ prayer-and-worship/prayers-anddevotions/stations-of-the-cross to see the full prayer form.)

In addition to the regular prayers at each station, consider keeping in mind Pope Francis' special intentions for 2021. Remember these monthly intentions as you say the Stations of the Cross this Lent and all prayers throughout the rest of the year.
