3085 - Creating Sabbath Space in Our Lives DVD (Rolheiser)

According to the theology of Sabbath, there is meant to be a fixed rhythm to our days: we are meant to work for six days and then have a one-day sabbatical. Today we are more casual and careless than previous generations about observing the Sabbath and we are poorer, both religiously and humanly, because of this. Much of our tiredness and sense of being overwhelmed comes from not having a regular Sabbath in our lives. Join Fr. Ronald Rohlheiser in exploring how modern people can find more Sabbath time in their lives. A retreat, which has been formatted into 10- 30 minute sessions, can easily be adapted for the needs of the viewer. The materials needed are included in PDF files on a separate disc, along with suggestions for group process.
