Red Mass is a historic tradition dating back to the thirteenth century when it officially opened the term of court for most European countries. It is called "Red Mass" for the color of the vestments worn by the celebrants, signifying the fire of the Holy Spirit as God's blessing and guidance is evoked for judges, attorneys, government officials and all who seek justice regardless of religious affiliation.

I will attend the ECBA Red Mass on October 3, 2022. Enclosed is my check payable to the ECBA, 429 West 6th Street, Erie, PA 16507. Registration also available online at <https://www.eriebar.com/events/member-registration/1734>
