CALM Grading: Communicating student achievement requires CALM grades - grades that are consistent, accurate, learning-focused and meaningful.

Current Reality	Successes	Challenges	Questions/Wonders

Next Steps/Future Planning:

Questions to consider:

1. How comfortable are you leading this work?
2. If this work has been done, who was responsible for leading the work? What messaging did they use?
3. How are you going to move forward based on your answers to the previous two questions?

Purpose Statement: “The purpose of grades is to communicate student achievement accurately and honestly based on clearly articulated learning and behavioral goals and established criteria at a specific point in time.”
