Director of Communications & Marketing
Erie, PA | Diocese of Erie | Full-Time

Are you a creative storyteller, strategic communicator, and inspiring leader looking to make a meaningful impact?

The Diocese of Erie is seeking a Director of Communications & Marketing to lead diocesan communications, digital engagement, branding, social media, video storytelling, and content strategy across thirteen counties of northwest Pennsylvania.

In this leadership role, you will:

- Develop and execute communications and marketing strategies
- Lead social media, EriE-news, web content, and multimedia storytelling
- Supervise and mentor creative team members
- Manage branding, video production, photography, and digital content
- Collaborate with diocesan leaders, parishes, schools, and ministries to share inspiring stories of faith and service

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in Communications, Marketing, Journalism, English, or related field
- 5+ years of professional communications, marketing, writing, or editing experience
- Strong leadership, project management, writing, social media, and multimedia skills
- Understanding of Catholic ministry and mission preferred

Join a mission-driven organization where your creativity and communication talents will help connect communities, strengthen faith, and advance the Church's mission.

Apply today and help tell the stories that inspire, engage, and evangelize.

How to Apply

Application Deadline for Best Consideration: November 30, 2026
(Applications will be accepted until the position is filled.)
Please submit your cover letter, résumé (including references), and application form:

Option 1: Email all materials to hrinfo@eriercd.org

Option 2: Complete the online application at: https://www.eriercd.org/employment.html
(Then email your résumé and cover letter)

Option 3: Mail to:
Attn: Human Resources – Director of Communications and Marketing Search
429 E Grandview Blvd.
Erie, PA 16504