

The Chosen: Discussion Group Survey

* Required

What were any positive takeaways from your experience of this discussion group? Check all that apply. *

- Watching The Chosen helped me experience God's presence
- The group discussions helped me experience God's presence
- I feel more connected to my parish/tri-parish family now than I did before this
- I feel more connected to at least one other person in the group than I did before this
- I'd now feel more comfortable visiting with fellow participants the next time I see them in-person
- I grew in my comfortability attending church events over Zoom
- Other: _____

What was the most meaningful part of this 8-week experience? *

Your answer

What could have made this experience more meaningful for you? *

Your answer

How was the technology experience for you? Check all that apply. *

- Using Zoom group video chat helped make this a meaningful experience
- I felt supported and encouraged in using the Zoom technology
- I felt uncomfortable engaging with the Zoom technology
- Using the Zoom technology was better than I thought it would be
- Using the Zoom technology was worse than I thought it would be

If you were given an opportunity for another virtual small faith-sharing group over Zoom, would you consider doing it again? *

- Yes; I like this format, and it's a good fit for my needs, especially during the pandemic
- No; I'd rather wait until we can meet in person
- Maybe; it depends on the people and/or the content

Any ideas for a future small faith-sharing group that would interest you?

Your answer

What next steps would you be interested in taking, if any?

- Group reunion in Advent: Discussing the Christmas episode & closing prayer service
- Gathering again for a similar program when Season 2 of The Chosen is released
- Volunteering to help host in-person discussion gatherings of The Chosen (when it's safe to do so)
- Receiving a weekly email with a reflection question from The Chosen devotional
- Joining a faith-sharing small group that meets over Zoom
- Joining a faith-sharing small group that meets in-person

In The Chosen, the people that Christ calls feel compelled to tell others about Him. How might you feel called to take action after this experience? Check all that apply

- Sharing your DVD set with someone else so they can watch it
- Talking to someone you love about The Chosen
- Volunteering for a future group that is watching Season 1 of The Chosen
- Internal action: Deepening my prayer life
- External action: Connecting more with the tri-parish family

What's your name?

Your answer

What's your preferred email address?

Your answer

What's your preferred phone number?

Your answer