The day includes an invitation for brothers and sisters of all Christian denominations to offer the Lord's Prayer at noon.

The bishop is asking people to set aside time to pray for all those affected by the pandemic including government leaders, researchers, healthcare workers, the sick, our communities, those suffering financial hardship, and those who have died, as well as their families.

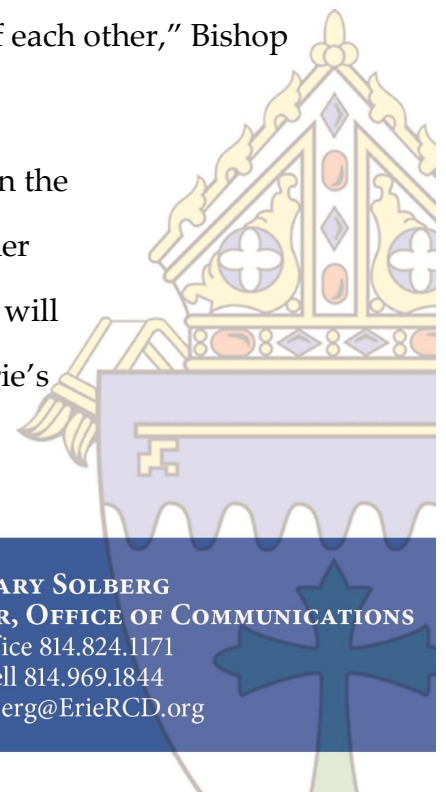

"As a Christian community, we must intercede on behalf of each other," Bishop Persico said.

The annunciation is a Marian feast during which the Catholic Church commemorates the moment when the Blessed Virgin Mary agreed to become the mother of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

A litany, a special prayer that can be prayed individually or shared by those gathered in a home, will be posted at www.ErieRCD.org/inspiration.html.

“The actions and prayers of Pope Francis have been exemplary during this time,” Bishop Persico said. “He has said that we want to respond to the pandemic ‘with the universality of prayer, compassion and tenderness.’”

After praying the Lord’s Prayer, Bishop Persico will continue the livestream by leading a rosary for the intentions noted above.
